Any antisemitic conduct will be treated as a serious breach of this Code of Conduct and may result in disciplinary action in accordance with organisational policies and applicable legislation.

DEFINITIONS:

Misconduct / Student Misbehaviour

Misconduct includes unacceptable behaviour which does not reflect safe practices or as set out in the International and Domestic Deferral of Commencement, Suspension of Studies Cancellation of Enrolment Policy and Procedure the conduct referred to herein.

Course Study Misconduct

In this policy Course Study Misconduct includes plagiarism [intentional or unintentional], collusion and cheating in relation to a formal academic exercise.

Plagiarism

"To take and use as one's own thoughts, writings or inventions of another" (¹Stevenson & Waite, 2011). Plagiarism therefore has two elements:

1. taking another's work; and
2. using the work as your own

If you take another's work but do not use it as your own – because you reference it correctly – it is not plagiarism.

Intentional Plagiarism:

Involves the deliberate act of presenting someone else's work/ ideas as if you wrote it yourself.

Examples of intentional plagiarism include:

- Copying problem answers from a classmate
- Copying any assignments from a student in a previous year
- Copying the answers/suggestions from any form of AI

Unintentional plagiarism:

Students often do not recognise unintentional plagiarism as plagiarism (Grammarly, 2022). However, it is taking another's work and using as your own – because there is no acknowledgement of who has done the work. Unintentional plagiarism usually occurs because of a lack of understanding about what plagiarism is; and poor referencing, citing and quoting skills.

Examples of unintentional plagiarism include:

- failing to indicate that some text is a direct quote (quotation marks should be used);
- paraphrasing a chapter and including the source in the reference list, but not acknowledging the source in the text;
- Composing a paragraph by joining sentences from a number of sources together and not acknowledging the sources in the text
